

News Bulletin

Institute of Research & Development 31 August 2020

Ref: RSU/IRD/News Bulletin/04

Cybersecurity researchers warn of espionage campaign; India among the most affected nations

An espionage campaign is targeting military and government-related personnel, according to researchers at cybersecurity firm Kaspersky. The firm in 2019 began an investigation into an ongoing campaign launched by a group known as Transparent Tribe to distribute the Crimson Remote Access Trojan (RAT).

Read More...

Internet of Things adoption in India still at niche stage: Deloitte report

New Delhi: Adoption of Internet of Things (IoT), which provides the core tools to automate data collection and generate insights, is still at a niche stage in India due to various challenges such as lack of clarity on what to prioritise and right talent and skills, says a new report.

Read More...

Exposure to air pollution contributes to higher BP

For a major part of north India, air pollution is a menacing issue and last year during the winter season, pollution led to a health emergency in Delhi-NCR. Ambient air pollution, specifically PM 2.5, is reportedly associated with cardiovascular disease risk.

Read More...

Is there a safe and sustainable way for India to dismantle old ships?

Conducting the entire shipbreaking process on a specially constructed bed rather than a muddy surface could limit environmental damage, say researchers.

Read More...

Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute to conduct online courses on vedas

One of the oldest institutes in the city – the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute has announced it will be conducting special online courses on vedas.

Read More...

NASA selects potential mission to study dynamics of the Sun

NASA has picked five proposals for concept studies of missions to help improve understanding of the dynamics of the Sun and the space environment with which it interacts around Earth.

Read More...

NCRB data: Higher share of Dalits, tribals, Muslims in prison than numbers outside

The latest data on prisons released by the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB) show that Dalits, tribals and Muslims continue to be jailed in numbers disproportionate to their share in the population, unlike OBCs and those belonging to the general category or upper castes.

Read More...

Uttarakhand CM meets DRDO chairman, discusses plans of promoting defence sector in region

Uttarakhand chief minister Trivendra Singh Rawat on Sunday met Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO) chairman Dr G Satheesh Reddy at his residence in Dehradun.

Read More...

Police Use Doubtful Science To Justify Rigid Speed Enforcement

The police ignored basic road safety science when they decided to rigidly enforce speed limits, says the car review website dogandlemon.com.

Read More...

Speed & alcohol/drugs in fatal crashes (2014-16)

Dattatraya emphasises on research and innovation at varsity level

In a meeting with Vice-Chancellors on National Education Policy-2020, Governor Bandaru Dattatraya stressed on working in the direction of research, innovation and entrepreneurship, keeping in view equality and inclusiveness.

Read More...

AI research to aid women's safety on public transport

Researchers from the SMART Infrastructure Facility at the University of Wollongong (UOW) are developing software that will allow existing closed circuit television cameras to automatically identify and report suspicious or violent incidents.

Read More...

Rape Cases Show No Signs Of Stopping, Even As COVID-19 Cases Mount

India has been buckling under the fatal spread of COVID-19 ever since the first case was detected on January 30, 2020 in Kerala. The meter currently stands at a staggering 3.3 million total cases, with deaths touching almost 60,000, making India the third-worst affected country in the world behind USA and Brazil.

Read More...

RAKSHA SHAKTI UNIVERSITY

Pioneering Security and Police University of India

(Public University established by the Government of Gujarat and recognized by UGC)

(Bill upgrading RSU as an Institute of National Importance and Central University as Rashtriya Raksha University

Bill No. 99 introduced in the Parliament of India on 23 March 2020)
