About Rashtriya Raksha University

The University is destined to grow as a model security educational University of India. Its endeavors focus on highly professional security, strategic and defense education, research and training through its qualified civilian and military faculty, committed human resources, motivated participants and students, intellectually stimulating and professional disciplined environment and worldwide network, sharing and exchange. It aims at providing security and strategic education in contemporary and futuristic security and strategic studies and interdisciplinary areas. The University contributes to the vision of India of Peace, Prosperous and Stable World in alliance with grand strategic cooperation between like-minded nations and promoting greater understanding between senior military officers, diplomats, civil servants and civilians to promote the cause of the Nation. It adopts a two-tier approach, at the national and international levels, in its education, research, training and extension in order to achieve capabilities to respond to the needs, expectations and aspirations of the security and strategic institutions and forces as well as law-making, governance, judiciary, economy (agriculture-manufacturing-service sectors) and the civil society organizations.

About School of Internal Security and Police Administration (SISPA)

The School of Internal Security and Police Administration (SISPA) offers various Academic and Research Programmes viz. Ph.D. in Police Administration; M.A. in Police Administration and Strategic Management; Post Graduate Diploma in Police Science & Management (PGDIPSM); Post Graduate Diploma in Industrial Safety and Security (PGDISS); B.A. in Security Management (BASM); & Diploma in Police Science (DIPS). The SISPA was created in February 2020 with a view to expand the ambit of the then existing Department of Police Administration to cover various dimensions of internal security. The School has a rich pool of experienced faculty members, including those who have served with distinction in Gujarat Police and Central Industrial Security Force. The School strives to provide students with a blend of theory and practice. The internships and field visits to major police and other security organizations are regular features of the School. In addition, seminars, special lectures and regular interaction with practitioners from all the domains of internal security are facilitated by the School. In addition, the School has six dedicated Centers namely: Centre for Border Management and Intelligence Studies (CBMIS); Centre for Counter-Insurgency and Counter-Terrorism (CCICT); Centre for Corporate and Private Security Studies (CCPSS); Centre for Women in Police and Security Service (CWPSS), Centre for Disaster Risk Reduction (CDRR) and Centre for Traffic Management and Road Safety (CTMRS).

About the Center for Corporate and Private Security Studies

The Centre for Corporate and Private Security Studies (CCPSS) is conceptualized by RRU's School of Internal Security and Police Administration (SISPA) from the Academic Year 2020-21. The objective for establishing the Centre is to work towards offering solutions to the multitude of challenges faced by the Corporate and Private Security Industries and to provide the opportunity for the Skilling, Up-skilling and Re-skilling of the corporate and private security personnel. The Centre is working towards motivating the youth and ex-servicemen to join the corporate and private security industries and excel in their career as corporate and private security professional. The CCPSS is engaged in teaching, training, research, and extension activities in the sphere of Corporate and Private Security Industries.

In recent past, the Centre for Corporate and Private Security Studies (CCPSS) has organized number of lecture series on corporate and private security by the security professionals covering various topics. RRU has also signed MoUs with many organizations including CISS Academy for Skill Human Development Pvt. Ltd., the Central Association of Private Security Industry (CAPSI) for training and promoting employment opportunities for the youth and ex-servicemen. The CCPSS has also organized a 7 days Training Programme for the on-roll security officers of NAYARA Energy Ltd. and a 5-Days training program for serving and retired Defence and police personnel for their upskilling and reskilling. The Centre has also hosted a Round Table with Corporate and Private Security Agencies to explore the employment opportunities in the corporate and private security sectors. The Centre is also playing important roles for the development and progression of Corporate and Private Security Industries through various forums.

The Centre has established a K9 Squad (Dog Squad) with trained dog trainer, dog handlers and dogs of different breeds. The Centre has is also organizing 30-Days hands on training of “Pool of Dog Handlers” for the youths and students of RRU from time to time. The Centre is also planning for the technical training of the youths, retiring and retired ex-servicemen, security personnel, etc. on use of CCTV Video Footage Auditing and Investigation. The Centre is establishing a security laboratory encompassing security gadgets for the hands-on experience to the students and trainees on the use of industrial security technology. The Centre is progressing with the activities to promote academia – industry partnership by exploring the possibilities of employment by introducing certificate, diploma, degree and post graduate diploma courses on security and safety management for security personnel for their career progression and for the students those who are seeking their career in Corporate and Private security sectors.
